

MUSIC CAFÉ

"Music, sung or played, is spiritual food for soul and heart." —Bahá'í Writings

An "adorning" is something that makes us beautiful or gives us honor or recognition. How do you let your positive qualities shine through? This song uses a quote from Bahá'u'lláh to remind us that we can be helpful to others without any words at all.

LET DEEDS, NOT WORDS

By Joe, Sonya, Keenan, and Dylan Crone

Verse 1

I went to the mar-ket just the o-ther day. I saw an old wo-man on her way. When her

4 bag of food fell to the ground, it was quick-ly picked up by kids hang-ing a-round. Let

6 deeds not words be your a-dor-ning, deeds not words be your a-dor-ning,

8 deeds not words be your a-dor-ning, deeds not words be your a-dor-ning.

Chorus

2 Well, a child at school was always picking on me.
We were sitting at lunch under a shady tree.
He had no food and was feeling sad.
I looked into my bag to see what I had.
CHORUS

3 One day we went for a ride in our family car.
We didn't think about the gas—we went too far.

A stranger came by and gave us a hand.
He got us on our way. We said, thank you, man.

CHORUS

4 One day I got out of bed before everyone else.
I went to the kitchen and decided, myself,
To make my family breakfast while they were in bed.
I had a little song ringing in my head.
